Jayvees defeat R-H, remain unbeaten at 2-0

The Raider junior varsity football team remains in the ranks of the unbeaten following last Wednesday evening's 20-12 victory over Charlotte County's team from Randolph-Henry.

The Raiders took an early lead in the first quarter, when quarterback Jeff Motley hit split end Gary Scruggs for a 36-yard touchdown pass. The conversion attempt was good for two when Motley hit slotback Timmy Turner, and the Raiders held an 8-0 lead.

In the second quarter, the Appomattox team hit paydirt again when Andre McCoy scampered 15 yards off tackle into the Randolph-Henry end zone. The conversion attempt, another pass, was unsuccessful, however, and the Raider jayvees took a 14-0 lead off the field with them at the half.

Randolph-Henry turned a Raider fumble recovery into a long scoring drive in the third quarter, and following a failed conversion attempt, the score in the game stood at 14-8.

Appomattox took the ensuing kickoff and marched down the field for their third score. Quarterback Motley scored on a quarterback sneak from three yards out to raise the Raiders' lead lead to 20-0. The conversion attempt was again foiled by Randolph-Henry's defense.

The final score of the game came in the final quarter. Randolph-Henry's quarterback uncorked a long pass for the final score of the game. The Raiders took the kickoff following the final score and controlled the ball for the last two and a half minutes of the game, to record the 20-12 win.

Offensively, the Raiders picked up 140 yards rushing, including Dayne Patterson's 10 carries for 72 yards, Andre McCoy's eight carries for 40 yards and a touchdown, and Timmy Turner's three carries for 13 yards.

The Raider jayvee team also picked up 62 yards passing, with Motley completing four of five passes, one of which was good for a touchdown.

On defense, Coach Howard Clabough commended the efforts of Barry Phelps, Jeff Fanney, Andrew McCoy and Ricky Dickerson.

"The kids have gotten off to a good start," Clabough said after last week's second win of the 1983 season. "Against Randolph-Henry, they played an excellent first half of football, but they let down a little bit in the second half. Randolph-Henry scored after a fumble, and the defensive secondary let down a little bit on the long scoring pass," the coach said.

He noted that he was particularly pleased with the play of quarterback Motley, who completed four of five passes against Randolph-Henry.

This week, the Raider jayvee team is scheduled to face off against Nelson County at Nelson. "Nelson County is always tough," said Clabough. "Last year we battled to a 6-6 tie."

The Nelson-Appomattox game will begin at 2 p.m. tomorrow (Thursday) at Nelson County High School.

Jayvees honored

Four members of the Appomattox Raider junior varsity team have been named "Players of the Week" following Wednesday's 20-12 victory over Randolph-Henry.

Jeff Scruggs was named offensive lineman of the week. Scruggs, who plays right guard, "opened good holes for running backs Dwayne Patterson and Andre McCoy" against the R-H jayvees, according to Coach Howard Clabough. Scruggs also starts at defensive tackle.

Barry Phelps was named defensive lineman of the week. Phelps, who plays defensive end, had two quarterback sacks, and five tackles against R-H. Clabough said that Phelps also did a good job at his offensive left guard position.

Jeff Motley was named offensive back of the week. Phelps, who plays quarterback, completed four of five passes for 62 yards and a touchdown, and ran for a touchdown against R-H.

Andre McCoy, an offensive standout, was honored for his defensive efforts against R-H. He had nine tackles, intercepted a pass, and blocked an extra-point kick attempt from his position at defensive back.

Raiderettes split again

The Raiderette varsity girls' basketball team remained at .500 last week, with a 49-37 loss to Jefferson Forest Tuesday, followed by a 36-32 win over Nelson County Thursday evening.

Tuesday's game saw the Raiderettes take an early lead, but Nelson fought back in the second quarter to take a 29-16 lead into the locker room at half time.

The Raiderettes had tied the score by the end of the third quarter, 24-24, and in the final period of play, Appomattox edged in front of Nelson to record the win, 36-32.

Tolley noted that Appomattox had a good night rebounding, with 33 rebounds to Nelson's 24. Sally Coleman pulled down 14 rebounds, Lisa Pannell six, and Sandra Watkins and Nina Abbitt each got four rebounds.

Tolley noted that "clutch free-throw shooting in the fourth quarter helped the Raiderettes gain and retain the lead. The local girls hit six of 11 freethrow attempts in the fourth quarter.

Leading scorers for Appomattox were Watkins with 17 points, Coleman and Bev Bennett with six points each, Abbitt with four points, and Kaye Browne with three points.

The Raiderettes were scheduled to play Altavista Tuesday after the Times-Virginian deadline. Thursday night the team will play Brookville at home. Next Tuesday, the girls will play Liberty. Jayvee games start at 6 p.m., with the varsity games beginning after the jayvee contests, at approximately 7:30 p.m.

Weslay receives medal

Marine Cp. Eric D. Weslay, son of Ernest W. Weslay of Route 1, Pamplin, Va., was recently awarded the Marine Corps Expeditionary Medal while serving with Marine Medium Helicopter Squadron-263 (HMM-263), Marine Corps Helicopter Air Station New River, Jacksonville, N.C.

He received the award for serving as a member of the 24th Marine Amphibious Unit in Beirut, Lebanon from November 1, 1982 to February 14, 1983.

HMM-263 was recently selected "Squadron of the Year" by the Commandant of the Marine Corps and the Marine Corps Aviation Associaiton and presented the Chief of Naval Operatons (CNO) Naval Aviation Safety Award.

The selecton as "Squadron of the Year" resulted primarily from the squadron's performance during NATO deployments and service in Beirut.

The CNO Aviation Safety Award was awarded to HMM-263 for the outstanding safety record it had achieved during aircraft operatons with Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic.

CVCC offers English class

Central Virginia Community College in cooperation with Appomattox County Public Schools is interested in helping students achieve their educational goals.The college will offer a college level course in English Composition to seniors of Appomattox County High School if there is sufficient interest. This course will not be in lieu of the required English 12 class.

The course in English Composition 111 - 112- 113 will begin with the Fall quarter beginning Monday, Sept. 19 and be completed with the Spring quarter 1984. The Fall quarter begins Sept. 19 and ends December, 1983. Winter quarter begins January and ends March, 1984, and the Spring quarter begins in late March and ends June, 1984. The class will meet weekly at Appomattox County High School on Monday evening from 7 - 9:40 p.m.

English 111 - 112 - 113 are 3 credits each and will easily transfer to other colleges. Tuition will be $13.50 per credit hour or $40.50 for each quarter. The Appomatox County School Board will pay 50% of the tuition for each student. Cost of the text for fall quarter will be $10.95 which will be paid by the student to CVCC. Cost of the text for Winter quarter will be approximately $13.00 and for Spring quarter $8.00.

Benefits to the student will be in learning how to write and to reason. These abilities should transfer to other subject areas and result in better grades in college.

For more information contact Mrs. Linda Archer, Counselor at Appomattox County High School, [illegible]116.

Raiders weather R-H surge for 28-22 victory

The Appomattox Raiders weathered a strong second-half comeback by a scrappy Randolph-Henry team to preserve a 28-22 non-district victory in the Raiders' second game of this season Friday night.

Raider quarterback Paul Johnson got the Appomattox team's initial six points in the first quarter on a one-yard plunge into the Randolph-Henry end zone. The point-after-touchdown kick by Kevin Kendrick was unsuccessful.

The rest of the evening's scoring for the Raiders came compliments of Steve "Boo" Hamlett, the Raiders' lightening-quick tailback. Hamlett scored on runs of three yards and one yard in the second quarter, and on a five-yard scamper in the third quarter. The Raiders got two points on a conversion pass from Johnson to Tyrone Abbitt, and two more on conversion kicks by Kendrick.

Randolph-Henry began to battle back, scoring late in the second quarter, and carrying the momentum of that score with them through half time and into the second half.

The Statesmen used a mixture of well-executed pass plays and quick hitting running plays to whittle away at the Appomattox lead. Randolph-Henry scored twice in the third quarter and appeared on the way to a fourth score in the final period of play, but the Raider defense utilized opportunities such as fumble recoveries and interceptions to halt the Statesmen's momentum. Appomattox's offense regained possession after a stalled Randolph-Henry drive with less than a minute to play, and held the ball until time ran out on the clock.

"We felt that our boys played a good first half of football," Raider coach Gary Cuccio said after the game. "But we had a mental lapse in the second half," he added.

One challenge facing the Raiders at season's start was overcoming the lack of experience this season, in the wake of losing 17 starters from last year's team.

The problem was compounded before the start of this year's season, when interior lineman Alphonse Moore sustained an injury which put him out for the season, and Todd Scruggs received an injury which resulted in his being sidelined for at least six games.

"The performance of our offensive and defensive lines is the key to what we are attempting to do, the key to our season," Cuccio said this week. "We've seen improvement, but we still have a way to go. We hope to continue to gain experience and improve as a unit from week to week, and become a better football team."

The Raiders rushed to 153 yards, and passed for 90 yards against Randolph-Henry Friday night. Leading runners were Gary Ferguson (12 carries for 68 yards), Steve Hamlett (19 carries for 74 yards), and Ricky Turner (two carries for 17 yards). The Raiders had 10 first downs against the Statesmen.

This week, the Raiders are scheduled to play Nelson County at Bragg Stadium in Appomattox.

Nelson has won its first two games of this season. "We expect a tough, hard-hitting game," Cuccio says. "We believe our boys will be ready to play Friday night."

Game time for the Appomattox-Nelson contest is 8 p.m.

Tourney slated

A mixed-doubles tennis tournament will be held Sunday, Sept. 18 at 1 p.m. at FRCC.

Those members desiring to play should contact Mary Lou Harrison at 352-2245 or sign up at the club.

Entries must be received before Thursday night.

Softball tourney set in Brookneal

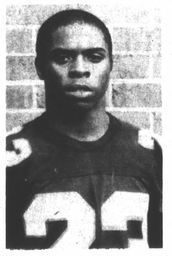
A slow-pitch softball tournament will be held at the Brookneal town ball park Sept. 23-25. The tournament will include men's and women's teams.

The top eight men's teams will receive trophies, as will the top four women's teams. Individual trophies will also be awarded to the top men's team and the top women's team in the tournament.

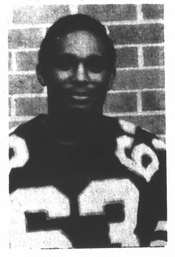
Official ASA umpires will be calling the game.

For further information about the tournament, call 376-2601.

Ricky Turner



Steve Hamlett



Carroll Patrick

Three varsity gridders honored

Three members of the Raider varsity football team have been honored for their play against Randolph-Henry Friday night.

Ricky Turner and Steve Hamlett have been named Backs of the Week, and Carroll Patrick has been named Lineman of the Week following the Raiders' 28-22 win against the Statesmen.

Defensively, Turner had three tackles, one assist, and a pass interception. On offense, he caught three passes for 55 yards.

Hamlett carried the ball 19 times for 74 yards against Randolph-Henry. He scored three of the Raiders' four touchdowns. Hamlett also caught one pass for three yards.

Patrick had a good night on the offensive line, according to Coach Gary Cuccio. On defense, he had three tackles, three assists and one fumble recovery.

In first summer

Success of rec. dept. noted

This summer the Appomattox Recreation Department held its first official season and according to Director Bob Hudson, things ran very smoothly.

Six activities were held and over 120 people participated. Tennis, taught by Jackie Smith and swimming, taught by Jim Franklin were the two most popular activities. Armin Thoma had an eager group for soccer averaging about 15 children per evening.

Softball, arts and crafts, and drama rounded out the summer scheduled.

Plans are being made for the fall session of recreation activities and a detailed list will appear in next week's Times-Virginian.
